Preface

We, the first yearbook staff of Southeast High School, present to you The 1956 SHIELD—a candid treasure of the year's happenings. Through our scrupulous effort, we sincerely hope that this publication, your first yearbook, portrays Southeast High School and its ever-increasing spirit, nobility, and foresight in a most vivid manner—that was our goal.

What lies ahead in the future of Southeast High School is unknown, but as we, the students and faculty, look ahead, we inevitably discover vast possibility; unlimited opportunity; profuse cultural upheaval. That which we have established this year in the form of tradition, shall linger through the years. Tradition, like metal to a magnet, stubbornly holds fast and steadfastly rebukes separation.

We have laid the stepping stones this year for the years to come. It is we who have created the pattern; who have built the foundation for the future development of Southeast High School.

The theme for the 1956 SHIELD is entirely appropriate and depicts the excellent school which it represents. In the short time that Southeast High School has existed, we have, through the use of adept planning, keen insight, and conscientious perseverance, elevated it from a mere beginning to the exemplary institution that it is today. This wondrous achievement will undoubtedly serve as a strong influence to the future students of Southeast and encourage them always to strive toward betterment.

It is this integrity on the part of both students and faculty that prompted our choice of Southeast High School's first yearbook theme—Knighthood.

Dedication

Mrs. Verle Morris
School Secretary

Miss Hazel G. Scott
Principal

We, the seniors of Southeast High School, dedicate our yearbook, the 1956 SHIELD, to our principal, Miss Hazel G. Scott, and our school secretary, Mrs. Verle Morris, for the outstanding work they have expended toward the successfulness of Southeast's first year. We will be ever grateful to them for their achievements this year. They have extended their efforts far beyond their duty—working long and tedious days, often far into the night, that we might have a well-organized and progressive first year. It is the exemplary job which they have done that has promoted the wonderful year we have enjoyed.

Class of 1956

The Senior Class of 1956 has the unique privilege of being the first graduating class from Southeast High School.

Not to be known as slow starters, the seniors soon were taking part in almost everything. It is shown in the records that there were 22 senior girls in Y-Teens, 7 in Girls' Glee, 16 in Pep Club, and 4 in the position of cheerleaders. The boys were not idle, either, as 2 of them were in Hi-Y, and 11 entered S Club. Combinations of senior boys and girls joined other organizations. There were 3 in Choir, 15 on the publications staff, 2 in Dramatic Club, 8 in Band, and 3 were office assistants.

Leading the seniors in their first and last year of Knighthood were the senior class officers who were: Don Nixon, president; Dale Adams, vice-president; Maudie Henderson, secretary; and Nancy Beall, treasurer. Theirs was an important job, as they were entrusted with the duty of presiding over a class that had to set many precedents which classes in years to come might follow.

These seniors are now taking the final steps in preparation for life. They, as Knights, are now waiting in anticipation of the battle before them, the battle of life.

Underclassmen

Class of 1957

The class of 1957 has participated in nearly all school activities, both extra curricular and required. Members of the class have taken part in the Nite of Knights, All School Play, County Government Day, Student Council, Red Cross Council, athletics, and many other school sponsored activities.

With their sponsor Mr. Tom Gillaspie and class officers, Carolynn Adams, president; Don Campbell, vice-president; Jackie Beard, secretary; and Janelle Jackson, treasurer; the juniors have expended their part toward the success of Southeast's first year.

The class, with an enrollment of approximately one-hundred students, represents achievements in nearly all phases of education, and as they prepare to enter their last year of secondary education, they hope to extend their achievements even more broadly.

Sophomores

Class of 1958

This year was a big one for the sophomores, who have two years at Southeast. The class enrollment totaled 191.

Presiding over the sophomores were the class officers: Dave Myers, president; Karen Brungardt, vice-president; Carol Carney, secretary; and Glenda Luff, treasurer.

Most of the boys participated in a variety of sports. They were also represented in Camera Club and the S Club. Dave Myers was secretary for the S Club. Sophomore girls took part in: Girls Glee, GAA, Y-Teens, and Pep Club. Lynn Wright was elected secretary of the Pep Club Knightettes. Carol Carney and Karen Brungardt were chosen for cheerleading from this class. Sophomore majorettes were: Leah Cheuvront, Karen Lyon, Sharon Rogers, and Judy Borgman. Both boys and girls were members of: Band, Choir, Nite of Knights, and Debate Club. Michael Crawford served as president of the Debate Club and Jane Spicknall was secretary. Judy Humann was elected president of N F L. Her officers were: Marilyn Ripley, secretary; Linda Hansen, treasurer; and Michael Crawford, reporter. Lynn Wright was chosen president of the Thalians. Rich Garlinghouse was elected secretary of the Student Council, which had other sophomore members. Carol Carney and Bruce Anderson, represented Southeast on the Red Cross Council. The cast of "The Night of January Sixteenth," the all school play, included: Sandie Dudley, Bruce Anderson, Shirley Parker, Don Smith, Thom Perry, and Keith Bastron.

Miss Grace Reiff and Mr. Larry Vaughan were the sponsors of this class.

Seventh Grade

Attending a new high school was an exciting experience for all of us, especially for the seventh graders. To them it was more than an exciting experience. It meant taking a big step in the process of growing up.

With the aid of Mrs. Georgianna Compton, their advisor, they started off the year as if they belonged here.

First, after a heated campaign, they elected as class officers: Tony Webb, president; Gary Stevenson, vice-president; Michael Velte, secretary-treasurer.

From their home rooms they elected Donna Wiles, Nicholas Dorsey, and Carol Conlon to the Student Council. Red Cross representatives were David McCall, Gary Stevenson, and Nancy Eager.

In the way of extra-curricular activities, the boys of the class played intramural basketball. The captains of the various teams were: Roger Refshauge, Tony Webb, Gary Stevenson, and Bill Rhodes.

Although small in stature, the seventh graders have hit Southeast in a big way and will make good leaders in the future.

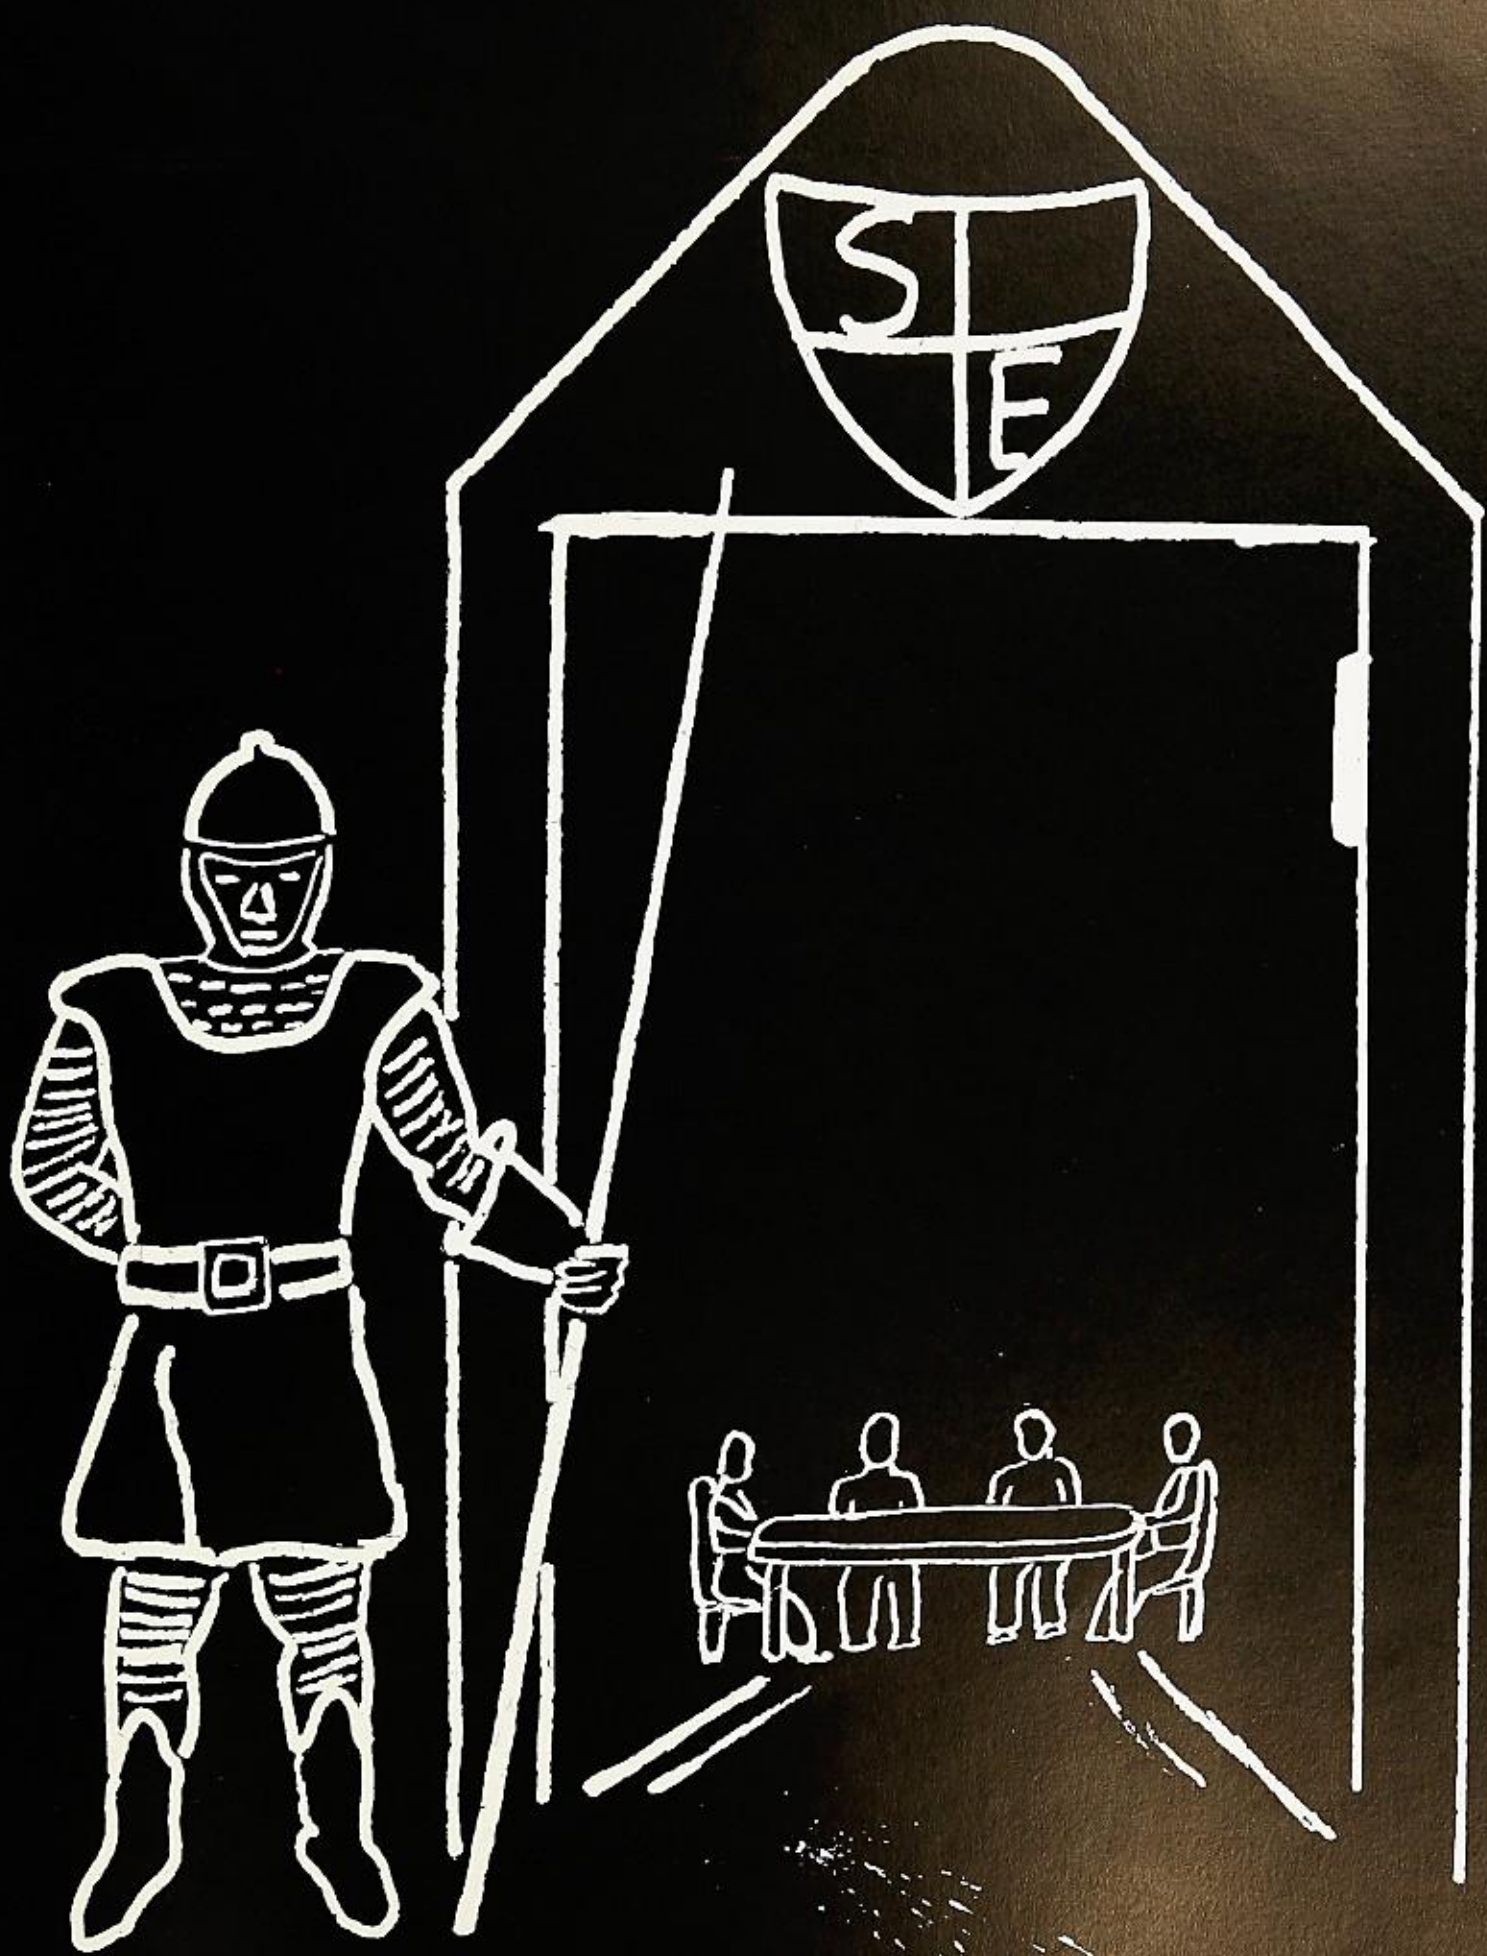
Activities



Student Council

The Round Table

The Southeast Student Council was one of the first organizations formed during the past school year. Officers elected were Zean Carney, president; Sue Turner, vice-president; Rich Garlinghouse, secretary; and Connie Schmidt, treasurer.

Each home room elected one student to represent them on the Student Council. Also, each club that was formed sent a student representative to the Student Council.

After all the representatives had been chosen along with the officers, the Student Council roll consisted of 35 students and two sponsors. The sponsors were Mrs. Pat Roberts and Mr. Rex Mercer.

The first major task the new Student Council faced was the formation of a constitution. A constitution committee was appointed. Members of this committee consisted of the four officers and one student from each grade. The students were Nick Dorsey, Brick Brewer, David Molzahn, Paulette Suder, Janie Howett, and Nancy Mehuron.

Late in November this committee submitted a proposed constitution to the Student Council. This constitution was approved section by section and then sent to the faculty for final approval. The constitution was approved in January.

Many of the representatives served on PTSA or Student Council committees. Representatives on the PTSA committees were Joyce White, Carol Carney, and Bruce Anderson, membership; Jeanette Fitzwater, Nancy Mehuron, and Carolynn Adams, hospitality; Donna Wiles, Janelle Jackson, and Carol Conlan, social; Jack Harvey, Paulette Suder, and Don Nixon, program; and Jim Dill, Connie Schmidt, and Jim Murphy, band.

Members of the permanent Student Council committees were Sue Turner, Carol Conlan, Judy Humann, Bruce Anderson, Paulette Suder, and Don Campbell, program; Jim Dill, Jane Adkisson, Brick Brewer, Nancy Wright, and Dick Whitmus, service; Jim Ebel, Nick Dorsey, Ronnie Crocker, Tom Laging, and Donna Radmore, finance; and Shielah Dunklau, Kenny Tenhulzen, Robert Webb, Neal Higgins, and Janie Howett, promotion.

The Student Council undertook many projects this past year. They were: the sponsoring of buses to athletic contests; CARE packages; all-school picnic; numbering of the auditorium seats; selecting a standard shield; promoting noon hour recreation; and helping clubs raise funds. The Student Council also purchased a popcorn machine and flags for the auditorium.

Presenting the 1955-56 Publications Staff. The staff was given a double duty this year because it was responsible for the publication of the school newspaper, the Clarion. as well as the first edition of the Southeast Shield. The publication of the Clarion was limited to six editions during the school year.

Mr. Paul Benjamin sponsored the Publications Staff this year, and, along with Miss Hazel Scott, principal, made the staff selections.

In addition to publishing the Clarion and Shield, the staff took part in several journalistic activities. The most important one was the Nebraska High School Press Association convention which was held November 4 and 5. The convention included lectures on all branches of journalism, a large variety of competitive contests, a luncheon and a dinner, and a dance which concluded the activities.

Character

The purpose of the Southeast Chapter of National Honor Society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Southeast High School.

National Honor Society is an organization for junior and senior students who excell in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Not more than fifteen per cent of the senior class may be elected to membership. Ten percent of these are chosen in their junior year and the remaining five percent are chosen in their senior year.

The following juniors were elected this year: Don Campbell, Dan Crawford, Steve Dakan, Janelle Jackson, Douglas Kent, Jim Pangborn, Joan Schultz, Sue Turner, and Janice Waddell.

The seventeen members of the National Honor Society during the 1955-56 school year are charter members of the Southeast Chapter. Miss Hazel Scott, principal, and Mr. Paul Benjamin are the sponsors for this organization.

S Club

Southeast's first year presented many problems to various organizations, and the S Club was no exception.

The members of the S Club were selected by an agreement among the boys who were interested in becoming members. Anyone could become a member if he had won a varsity letter at another school and was trying for a letter in that identical sport at Southeast.

The S Club began its operation by forming several committees. Their jobs were to nominate officers, choose a standard letter, write a constitution, and plan the year's activities.

The S Club chose as their officers the following: Lewis Brown, president; Jim Harvey, vice-president; Jeff Cheuvront, secretary; and Dave Myers, treasurer. Jim Ebel was elected to serve as the Student Council representative.

Pep Club

"Let's go Knights" was the cry of the one-hundred and fourteen members of the Southeast Pep Club.

The club this year was under the leadership of Donna Terpsma, president; Maudie Henderson, vice-president; Lynn Wright, secretary; and Penny Williams, treasurer. Nancy Mehuron was elected to represent the group on the Student Council.

The cheerleaders for this year were: Katherine Hess, Nancy Beall, Karen Brungardt, Carol Carney, Colleen Elliott, Janelle Jackson, and Jayne Westerhoff. Mrs. Leanor Thompson was the sponsor for the first semester, and Mrs. Beverly Turnbull, the second.

At the beginning of the year the girls chose to call themselves the Knightettes. Official uniforms consisted of black skirts and sweaters with gold socks and beanies.

One of the main events of the year was the Football Coronation during the Ashland game. Jack Harvey and Katherine Hess were crowned King and Queen of Football. The queen's attendants, who were members of Pep Club, were Nancy Beall, Mary Dee Patterson, Donna Terpsma, and Jayne Westerhoff. After the game, the Pep Club sponsored a Coronation Ball.

Another big event was the All-Sports Banquet. The All-Sports King and Queen were honored on this occasion.

Southeast's first Hi-Y Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Donald Darnell, participated in many activities during the past year. The club, which numbered about twenty members, stressed athletics in its program and, in co-operation with the school, sponsored dances and other social activities.

The club's meetings were held on Tuesday nights, bi-weekly. Officers of the club were: Dale Adams, president; Stan Refshauge, vice-president; and Don Barmore, secretary-treasurer.

The club tried to plan a program which would broaden its activities into a greater variety.

The Southeast Junior Red Cross Council was formed by election of representatives from each of the home rooms. Mrs. Edna Keal was appointed as sponsor of the group.

On November 9, 1955, the members of the council attended the county wide JRC round-up at Irving Junior High School. Mr. Eldon Mason, a director of JRC for the midwestern area, was the main speaker. After listening to Mr. Mason, the group was divided into discussion groups. A panel, with a member from each of these groups, discussed the topics of the smaller groups with the round-up members.

For the Christmas activity of the council, a movie was held in the auditorium. The proceeds from this movie admission, which was either a can of food or a nickel, went to a needy family at the Lincoln Air Force Base. The council also sponsored a group of acts from the "Nite of Knights" show which made trips to the Veterans and Orthopedic Hospitals.

As the main project for the spring of the year, the council undertook the task of making and filling a gift chest which was sent overseas to a needy family. The chest was made in the shop classes and was filled by committees appointed in the home rooms.

The representatives from the Southeast council to the County Wide Council were: Jim Dill, Carol Carney, Bruce Anderson, and Steven Wolf.

Debate, Thalians

Thirteen high school students were members of the debate squad. The debate squad was sponsored jointly in the first semester by Miss Barbara Leigh and Mr. Gerald Frederick. The squad was sponsored by Mr. Frederick in the second semester.

The debaters traveled to different places to hold their meets. Some of these towns were: Beatrice, Hastings, Omaha, and Midland College at Fremont. They also competed in tournaments at the University of Nebraska.

The subject debated at all meets was: Resolved, that governmental subsidies should be granted according to need to high school graduates who qualify for additional training.

To raise the standards of the educational theatre by recognizing the most worthy individual and group efforts in the art of the theatre, was the purpose of the Thalians, the Southeast Dramatic Club.

The Thalians, sponsored by Miss Barbara Leigh, began the year by writing a constitution and electing Lynn Wright, president; Nancy Mehuron, vice-president; Jim Ebel, secretary; and Dale Adams, treasurer.

The "Maskers" of the University of Nebraska helped the club to get started by sending a group to a meeting to present a short dramatic scene and tell them about the operation of a dramatic club.

Among the many activities of the Thalians was the sponsoring of the All School Play.

The club made great strides toward their goal of bringing the theatre to Southeast.

The purpose of the Camera Club was to offer an outlet for creative photography, and to give many opportunities for its members to gain experience and to develop skill in photography and dark room usage.

Membership to the club was granted to ninth grade and senior high students. Seventh and eighth grade students were also allowed membership until they had sufficient members for a club of their own. Meetings were held every other Friday.

Among their activities was the local sponsorship of the National Scholastic Photographic Contest.

The club officers were: Jerry Ellinger, president; Roger Simmons, vice-president; Don Walbaum, treasurer; and Bob Ellsworth, secretary. The sponsor was Mr. Thomas Douglas.

The National Forensic League is a National honorary speech organization. The NFL sponsors state, district, and nation-wide competition in speaking arts, such as debate, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking. The members also participate in dramatic readings, poetry readings, and radio news casting. The organization sponsors national and district student congresses in which the procedures follow the rules and regulations of the United States Congress. They also have a house of representatives and a senate. Committees are used to introduce bills, and formal debates decide if the bills should be approved.

The members were encouraged to participate in inter-scholastic competition, to speak before the community, and on radio.

The officers of the NFL were Judy Humann, president; Marilyn Ripley, secretary; Linda Hansen, treasurer; and Mike Crawford, reporter. There were eight active members, and Mr. Gerald Frederick was the sponsor.

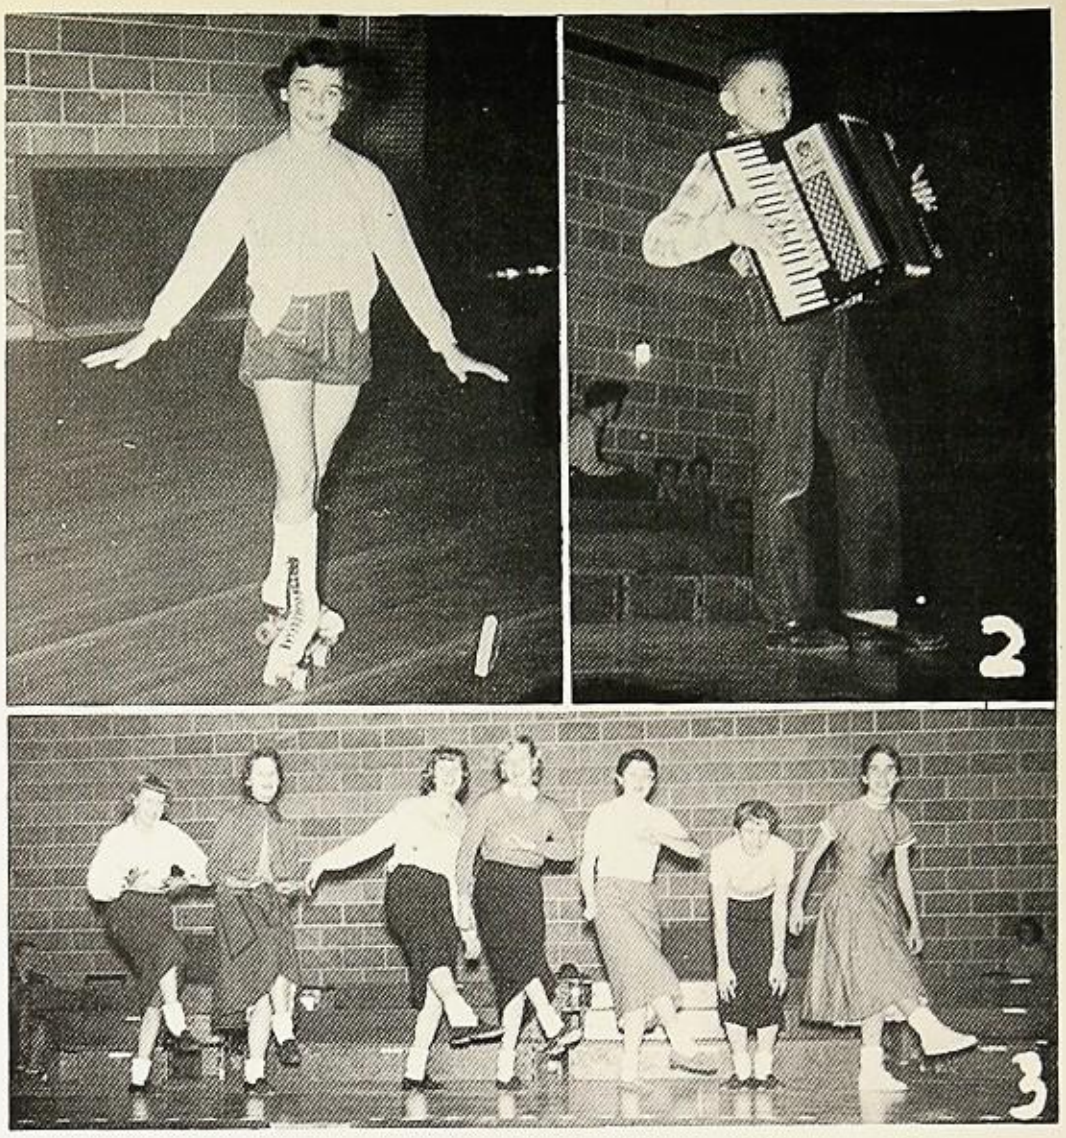
Nite of Knights, Play

"Christmas Street" was the theme for Southeast's first variety show, the Nite of Knights. This theme was chosen because the show was presented on December 17. The variety show was presented with a setting of Christmas trees and Christmas cheer at 7 and 9 o'clock in the Southeast auditorium.

The show was directed by Mrs. Leanor Thompson, Mr. William Splichal, and Mr. Paul Benjamin. More than fifty Southeast students took part in the twenty-one act presentation which included everything from comedies and dancing to mop lines and vocal and instrumental solos.

Proceeds from the show went to the Southeast band to aid them in such expenses as uniform changes, new equipment, and music.



#1 Billed as the "Christmas Skating Doll" was Marcene Malone.
#2 Supplying a bit of accordion music for the show was Lee Stevens.
#3 Going back to the "gay twenties" are, from left to right: Karen Lyon, Sandy Nixon, Sandie Dudley, Barbara Ketelson, Carol Carney, Judy Sellards, and Leah Cheuvront.

The first All School Play was given by the students of Southeast on February 16 and 17. The name of the play, a comedy-drama, was "Night of January 16th".

The setting was in the New York Superior Court where Karen Andre, played by Janelle Jackson, was on trial for the murder of her former employer, Bjorn Faulkner.

The Defense Attorney and District Attorney were played by Dale Adams and Jim Ebel respectively. Nancy Lee Faulkner, played by Carolynn Adams, widow of Bjorn Faulkner, was the star witness for the state.

Other witnesses were played by Bruce Anderson, Shirley Parker, Gwenith Swartz, Don Smith, Mary Dee Patterson, Nancy Mehuron, Thom Perry, Wendell Jackson, Keith Bastron, and Sandie Dudley. Other parts were played by Bill Barnhouse, Steve Dakan, and Shielah Dunklau.

The play was unique in as much as the jury members were selected from the audience.

Miss Barbara Leigh, director of the play, was assisted by Shielah Dunklau. The proceeds of the play went to the Thalians.

Southeast's first band was developed into a snappy, sharp-looking unit under the direction of Mr. William B. Splichal. Their main job was performing during the half-time at all the home football games. The highlight of the season for them and the spectators was their performance during the crowning of the king and queen of football at the Southeast-Ashland game. The drum majorette was Connie Schmidt, and the majorettes under her were Judy Borgman, Karen Lyon, Sharon Rogers, and Leah Cheuvront. Jackie Shaffer and Pat Glaser were the flag twirlers.

One of the band projects was the sponsorship of the annual variety show, "Nite of Knights", the proceeds of which went to help pay for the redecoration of the band uniforms. They also sold balloons and refreshments at the concession stand during the show to augment this fund.

Band officers were: Jim Murphy, president; Connie Schmidt, vice-president; and Jim Dill, secretary-treasurer. The band was represented by a pep band at many basketball games both at home and away. Dale Adams and Carolyn Hartz represented the band at the Nebraska State Music Clinic at Hastings.

Mr. Paul Austin took over the job of director second semester continuing the good work Mr. Splichal began. The highlights of the second semester were the vesper concert on March 11 and the annual band banquet on May 12.

Performing at the school dedication on March 4 was a big event for the orchestra. Under the direction of Mr. William B. Splichal the first semester, the orchestra was composed of twenty members. Every Tuesday and Thursday the string section was coached by Mr. Morris Collier. Jane Spicknall, Judy Paul, Martha Dennis, and Lila Thoman formed a string quartet. The quartet performed at the Honors Convocation, the Principal's Tea, and accompanied the Girls' Glee when they went Christmas caroling. At the beginning of second semester, Mr. Paul Austin took over the direction of the orchestra which increased in number to twenty-five members. The entire orchestra participated in a spring program of the combined musical groups.

The thirty piece prep band was under the direction of Mr. William B. Splichal during first semester and Mr. Paul Austin during the second semester. They played at an assembly, presented a concert for PTSA on February 16, and participated in a spring program of the combined musical groups. Some ensembles were organized in the spring to give members of the prep band an opportunity to play in small groups.

Honors Convocation, a vesper concert, baccalaureate, senior high commencement, three Southeast vocal music programs, and a PTSA meeting were some of the events at which the Girls Glee performed. Much time was spent in preparation for these various programs.

The Glee consisted of girls from grades nine through twelve. During the first semester there were seventy-six members; sixty-one girls composed the second semester class.

A triple trio was formed in the Glee and they sang on a television show, December 2, 1955. The members of this triple trio were: Milly Wolcott, Glenda Luff, Sandie Dudley, Shielah Dunklau, Janelle Jackson, Mary Severin, Sharon Everett, Anne Sowles, and Mary Lou Finnigsmier.

The girls chose black skirts, pale blue blouses, and black bow ties as the outfits to be worn during performances.

The director of these girls was Miss Evelyn Fosbury, and Mrs. June Wahl accompanied them.

Girls and boys from sophomore, junior, and senior classes were members of the mixed chorus. They sang patriotic and standard program type music. Some of their outstanding work was done on "This Is My Country" and "Stout Hearted Men". They also studied well-known compositions by famous composers and musical terms. Audiences at PTSA and The United Nations Observance assembly enjoyed the performances of this group.

Chosen from within this chorus was a mixed octet. They performed at KOLN-TV, PTSA, and Veterans and Orthopedic Hospitals. The members of this group were Jackie Shaffer, Mary Dee Patterson, Jayne Westerhoff, Retha Pauley, Jack Schwartz, Gene Ryan, Tom Davies, and Don Smith.

During Southeast's first year, the athletic coaches have been faced with a building process. In our opinion they have achieved the gratitude of all and we wish them every success in their future years at Southeast.

Mr. Tom Gillaspie's football team came alive at the end of the season proving that they could win. His reserve basketball squad played very good ball and we'll be looking forward to next year when these boys move up to the varsity ranks.

The varsity basketball team was coached by Mr. Rex Mercer. He finished the 55-56 season with a 6-8 record which was very good considering the strong competition. He coached his team to the semi-finals of the District Tournaments, and was also the assistant football coach.

Mr. John Reta built up a fine group of swimmers, who will be very tough in future competition. Mr. Reta's squad was mainly made up of sophomores. He also was assistant coach of the reserve football team.

Gymnastics was accepted by the Southeast students with a great deal of enthusiasm. Mr. Art Hillman entered the team into novice meets only.

Mr. Larry Goll took an inexperienced wrestling team and molded it into one that was giving its opposition a battle to the finish by the close of the season.

The reserve football team, coached by Mr. Jim Porter, ended the season in grand style. Mr. Porter also took over the coaching job for the sophomore basketball team.

Intramurals and ninth grade football duties were assigned to Mr. Glenn Fosnot who handled them very sufficiently.

Mr. Roy Churchill and Mr. Charles Gordon were given head coaching jobs for the track and baseball teams respectively. They handled their assignments in exceedingly good fashion.

The golf and tennis coaches were Mr. Paul Austin and Mr. Larry Vaughan respectively.

The big factor which was missing in the first few games for the Knights of Southeast was the extra punch when needed. The Knights lost their first four games by shutouts to Fremont, Hastings, Beatrice, and Norfolk, who were strong class A teams.

Southeast played one good half against Seward, but lost 31-12. The Knights' running game began to produce against Cathedral. Southeast was on top in all statistics except the one thing that determines victory from defeat, the final score.

With only two games to be played, the Knights traveled to Tecumseh. It was Tecumseh's homecoming, and the Knights obliged the Indians by winning their first ball game 13-6. Strong defensive play and the acquisition of extra yards when needed on offense, gave this long awaited victory to the Knights.

The Knights entered their own royalty game three to four touchdown underdogs against Ashland. Those people expecting a sure Ashland triumph were shocked when the final score read 40-0 in favor of a happy, Southeast eleven.

The members of this year's football team received several honors. Bob Erickson was selected as a member of the Lincoln Star's all-city team, and Harland Mook and Dave Myers were given honorable mention. These three boys also received honorable mention on the All-State Team. Jack Harvey was crowned King of Football by the Knightettes. John Koenig, Jeff Cheuvront, Lewis Brown, and Bob Erickson were chosen as attendants. Don Campbell, Lewis Brown, and Harland Mook received the Sertoma Club award.

The Southeast Knights didn't enjoy a successful season on paper, but in their hearts they can always be proud of this campaign. They displayed the courage and sportsmanship that won them the admiration of everyone. We salute those who earned the title, Knights of Football.

Varsity Basketball

Southeast's first basketball team started slowly but caught fire as the season ended and went down fighting in the semi-finals of the Class A District Tournament at Plattsmouth.

The Knights opened the season by defeating Wilber 39-23. After the first game things got a little rougher. Lincoln Northeast, Beatrice, University High, and Lincoln High provided four straight defeats.

Then Southeast played two sensational games. They beat a rated Holdrege five and stayed ahead of Class AA Hastings for three quarters until falling behind and losing by five slim points.

The team coasted along by beating Cathedral and Wahoo. Then Falls City caught the Knights on a shaky night and beat them 58-27. The following week the Knights rallied and went into the last quarter against rated Fairbury leading by seven only to lose 51-45.

Seward handed another loss to the Knights as tourney time neared. Omaha Westside came to Lincoln confident of a win but had a long ride home suffering from a 52-49 upset. After this game, it was obvious that Southeast would be a trouble maker when the tournaments began.

The season closed as the Plattsmouth cagers lost 44-37 to the scrappy Knights. On Monday of the following week, Bellevue's defense was torn apart as Southeast won their opening game in the tournaments 65-56. In the semi-finals the Knights led Falls City at the close of the first canton 16-13; but faded rapidly and only memories were left for the Knights to remember as the season came to an abrupt end.

The junior Knights are another stepping stone toward a position on the varsity squad. They have performed well this year and should be congratulated. At the close of the season two reserves had jumped to the summit, the varsity squad. These boys were Bill Roper and Jim Barrett. Other outstanding players who will be counted upon next year for possible varsity duty are: Ron Hill, Bruce Anderson, Jim Harvey, Vern Lotman, Dick Schmoker, Bill and Dick Piper, and Bill Redmond.

The sophomore basketball team did not have a successful season on paper, but these boys are the future Knights who will represent their school on the varsity team. They are the seeds that sprout into glorious blossoms. We wish them all the success possible in the forthcoming years at Southeast.

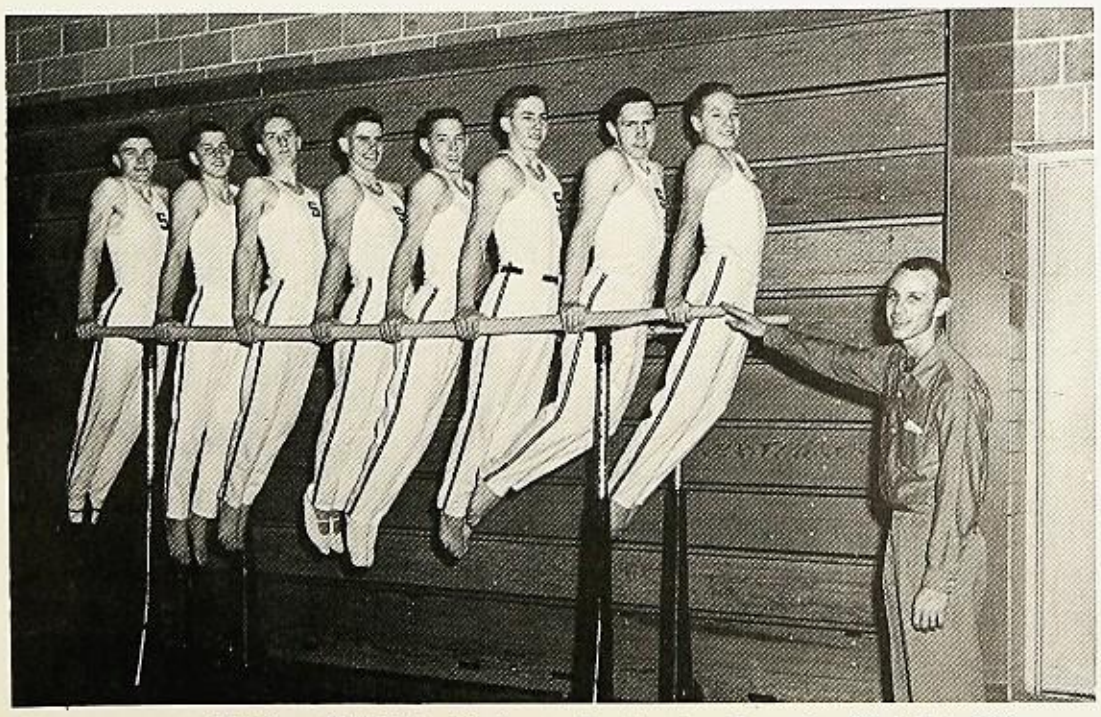
Second row: Mr. Goll, Fick, Wurtz, Crawford, Erickson, Campbell, Gibson, Refshauge

Southeast's wrestling team completed its first year with a 1-6 record. Coach Larry Goll's squad was green and inexperienced at the beginning, but looked better toward the end of the year. Bruce Hunkins, Winston Zimmerman, Dan Crawford, and Bob Erickson led the team throughout the year.

The mat men opened their season at home with Bellevue. They fell to an unmerciful score of 32-0. They then traveled to Northeast and again were beaten 32-8. Lincoln High wrestlers were the next opponents for the Knights, and handed them another drubbing. The Fremont Tigers fought to a 31-16 victory. Zimmerman, Hunkins, Laging, and Wurtz were high scorers for the Knights. Next, Northeast won a 29-15 bout over an improving Southeast team. Lincoln High beat Southeast for the second time by a score of 31-15. Southeast then journeyed to Fremont, and won its first meet of the year, 28-23, with Shaw, Crawford, Laging, and Zimmerman, leading the way. The city meet was next, and although Southeast finished third, Bob Erickson won his weight division with Zimmerman, Hunkins, Campbell, Crawford, and Wurtz, taking seconds.

Standing: Garlinghouse, Briggs, Davies, Drake, Van Bloom, Pardee, Jancke, Goldman, Gould, Mohr, Mr. Reta
Seated: Frank, Reynolds, Ferris, Murdy, Crawford, Jensen, McPherson, Yost

Southeast's first swimming team finished the year in good standing despite the fact that they were compelled to practice in the Northeast pool during the beginning of the season. Under the direction of Mr. John Reta the team rose from a relatively inexperienced group to a team that was a threat to the best of them. Tom Davies and Jim Frank were the co-captains of the team and Larry Mohr was the manager.



Youngquist, Hibbs, Kuklish, Kubert, Svoboda, Brandt, Wright, Gibson, Mr. Hillman

Gymnastics develops individual ingenuity in building an exercise routine. The object of this routing is for the boy to develop beauty and grace. The majority of the team were sophomores and the future looks promising.

Gymnastics is a very difficult sport. In competition the following events are performed: trampoline, side horse, horizontal bar, parallel bars, flying rings, and tumbling.

Virgil Kubert was high point man with Roger Brandt runner up. Other members who added to the team's total were: Don Wright, Gordon Kuklish, Jon Youngquist, Bill Gibson, and Dallas Svoboda. Mr. Art Hillman was the coach.

Coronation, Sweetheart

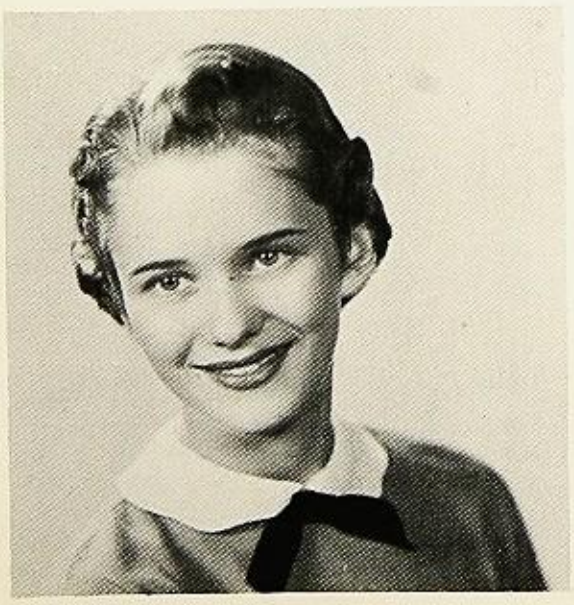
Jack Harvey and Katherine Hess were crowned Southeast's first king and queen of football. The ceremony took place at the Southeast-Ashland football game.

The queen and her four senior attendants were elected by the S Club. The Pep Club elected the king and his four senior attendants. The attendants were: Nancy Beall, Mary Dee Patterson, Donna Terpsma, Jayne Westerhoff, Lewis Brown, Jeff Cheuvront, Bob Erickson, and John Koenig.

Maudie Henderson, vice-president of the Pep Club, and Dave Myers, treasurer of the S Club, presented the crowns and trophies.

The ceremony was held in a castle formed by the Southeast marching band. The Pep Club, forming two lines, represented the entrance to the castle through which the royalty walked.

After the crowning the royalty returned to waiting convertibles which drove them past the home stands.



Nancy Beall

Nancy Beall was crowned Sweetheart Queen at the first annual Y-Teen Sweetheart Dance, held Friday, February 10, in the Southeast cafeteria. The crowning took place during the dance intermission. Six girls attended the queen. These girls were elected by the Y-Teens in a meeting held before the dance. Their identities were kept secret until they and their escorts were announced at the dance by Jayne Westerhoff. The girls, who were crowned by their escorts as they stepped onto the stage, were Maudie Henderson and Leanna Anker, seniors; Sue Turner and Janelle Jackson, juniors; Wanda Liska and Karen Lyon, sophomores.

Entertainment was provided by Jack Schwartz and Gene Ryan who sang a duet and Mary Dee Patterson who sang a solo.

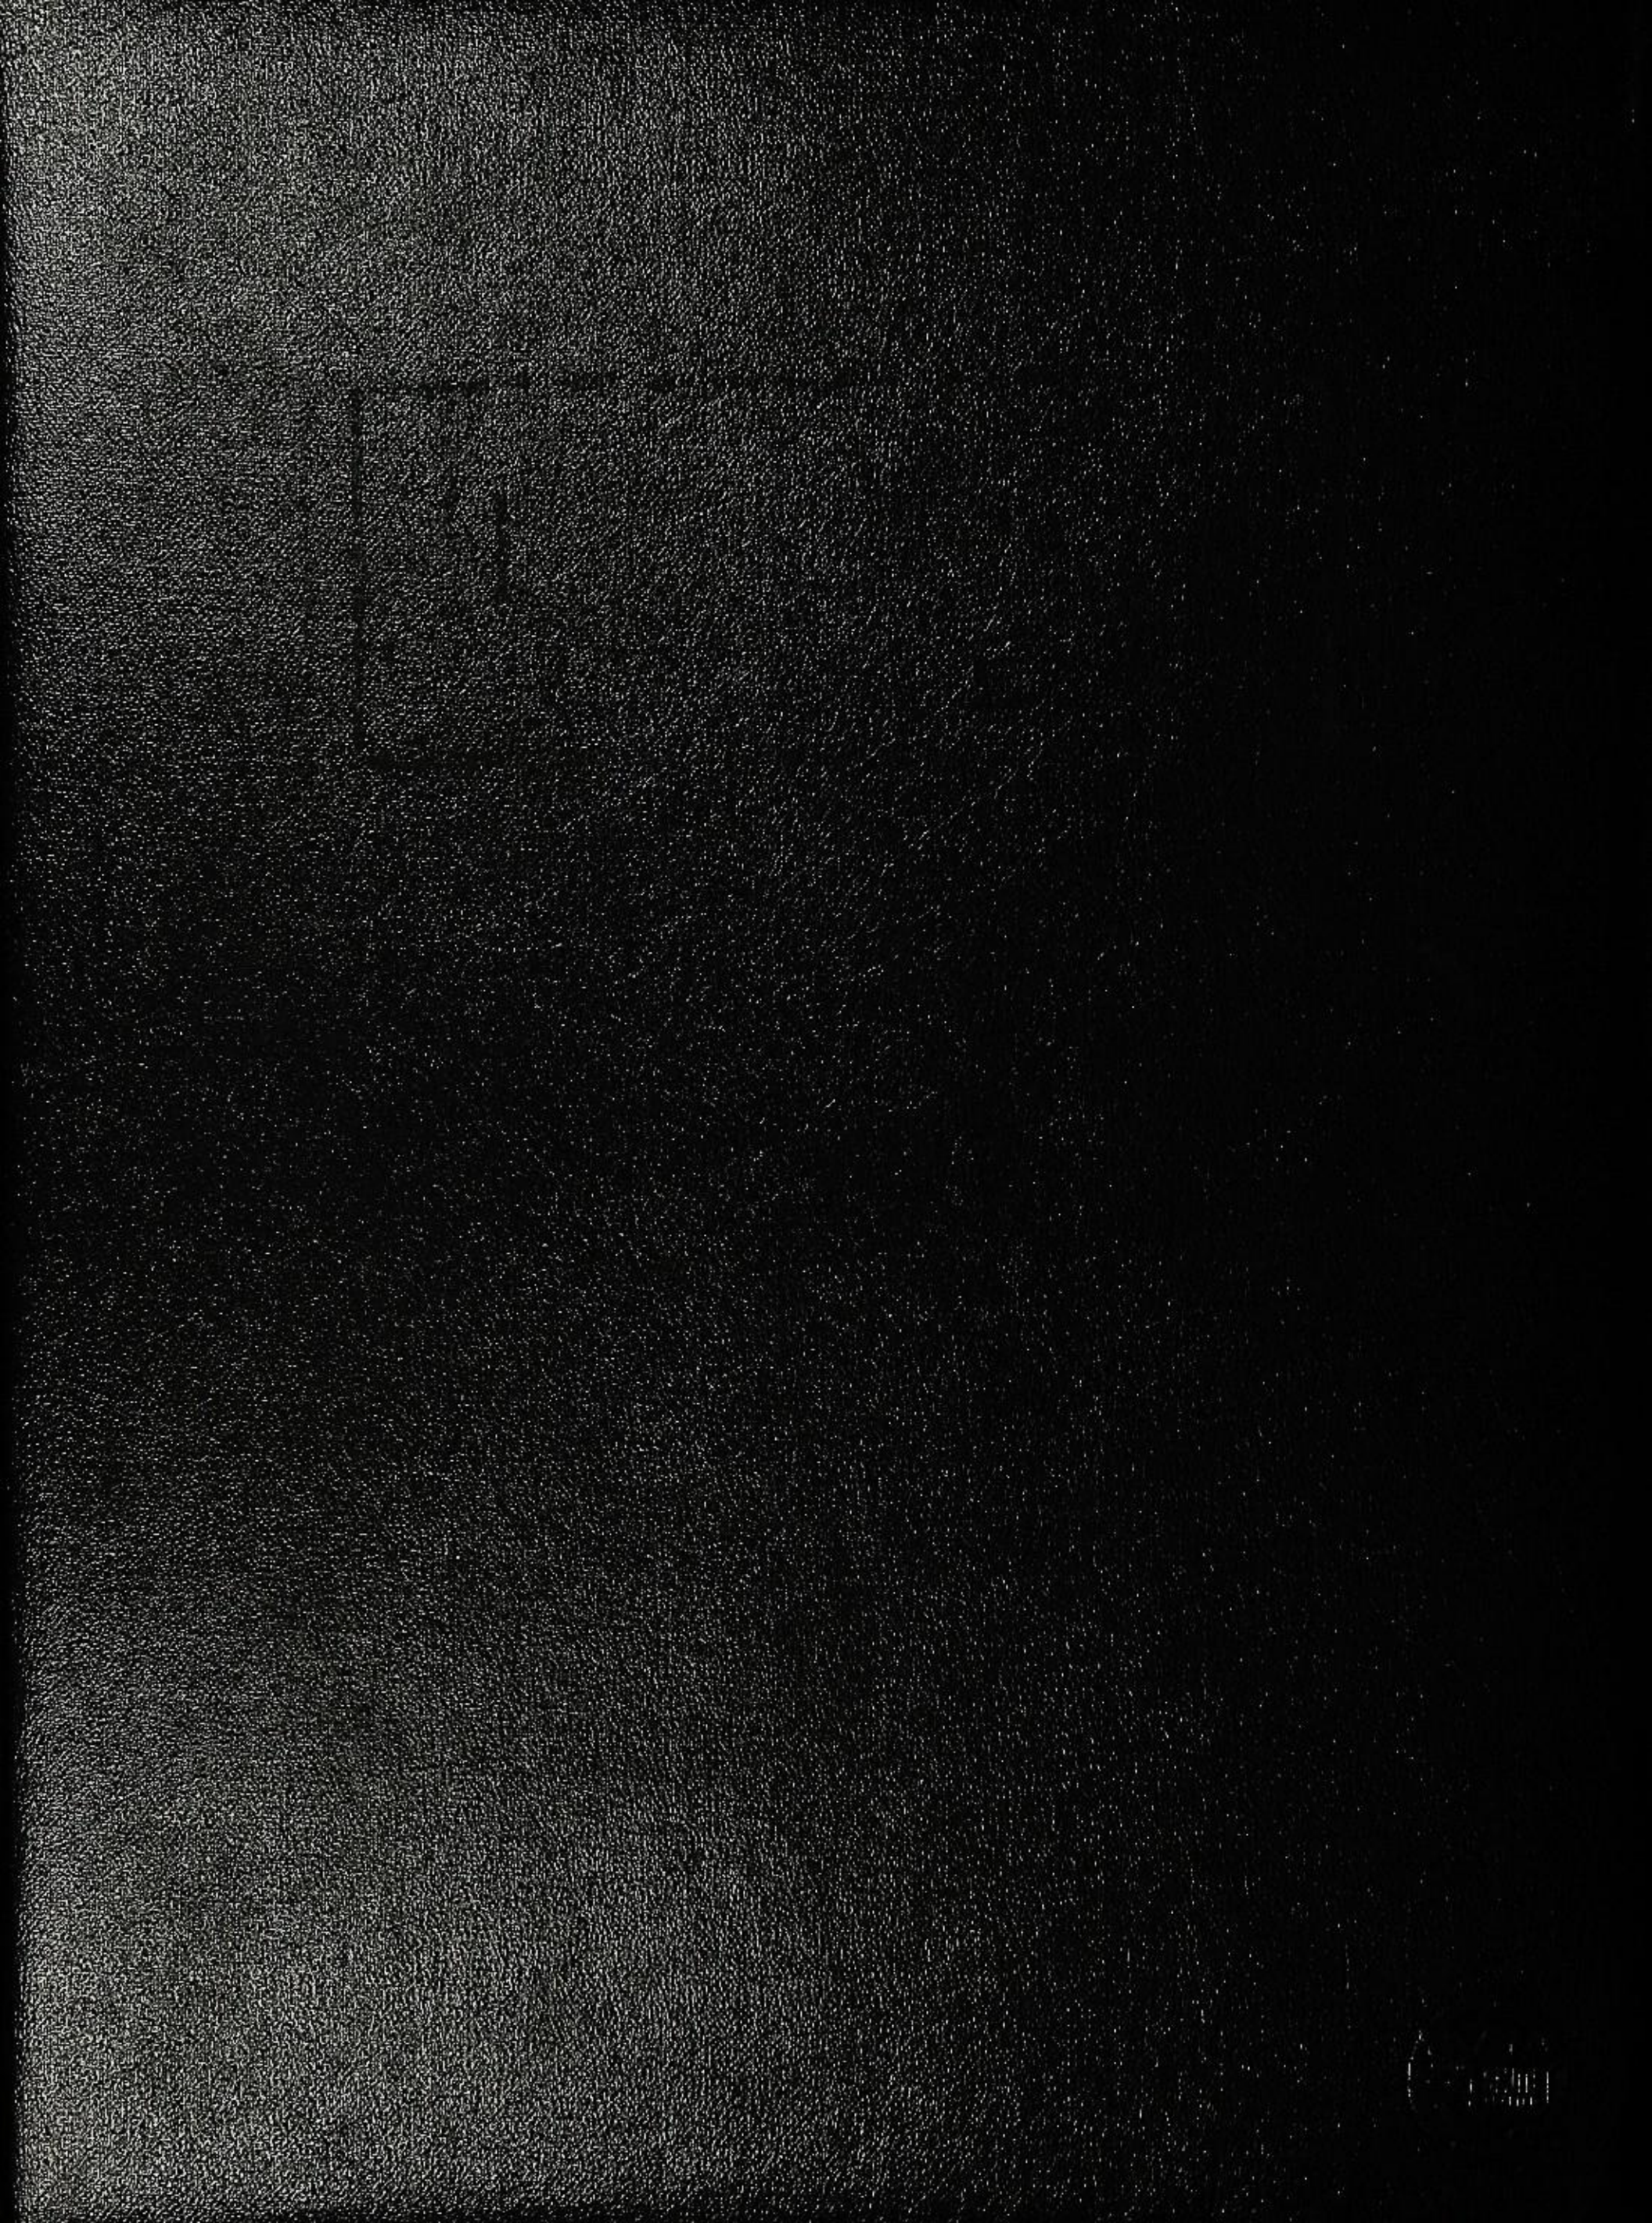
We should not look into the past, but into the future; we should plan wisely with foresight, for these are the keys to growth and the channel for distinction. We must retain what we have begun, but continue developing from where we left off.


Progress shall prevail through unity and co-operation on the part of everyone. We must employ knighthood in its truest sense if we hope to attain the goal of the Southeast Knights.
